

A Bird? A Plane? Superman? ... Or Just A Rumor?

Sh-h-h!

Now don't say we told you because it is supposed to be a deep, deep secret but there is to be a school election on Feb. 18.

Now--not so loud, please, if you must speak of it just whisper. The fewer people who know about it the better chance the proposal will have of carrying.

What is the proposal? Sorry you brought that up. Really we can't tell you much about it. Something to do with establishing a junior college district in the Joliet area, in which they include this area which makes up the Lincoln - Way High School District.

We are sorry we can't tell you much about it but really all we can give you is hearsay. No one connected with the deal has ever given us any word about it and school people in the district are no better off. All they know is there is a move to establish a junior college district.

There is a junior college at Joliet but it is not in a junior college district and so does not get as much state aid. A junior college district also has a chance of getting 75 per cent of the construction cost of a college plant from the state, providing, of course, the state has the money.

If anyone knows where the proposed junior college would be built he or they are not telling. The proposed district we understand, would take in most of Will County, a large piece of Grundy and a piece of Kendall County. Assuming the college would be located at Joliet it could very well be that the entire junior college board would be elected from that community. There is no provision in the junior college district act law requiring that different portions of a district have representation on the board.

It was first announced that the elections are conducted on a Saturday. Holding a school election on a Tuesday, political observers believe, would make the proposal a certainty. It would be almost as certain of success as holding a bond election on Christmas Eve when everyone is in a generous mood.

The people pushing the college plan, whether of their own volition or thru suggestion, asked that the election date be made Feb. 18, which falls on a Saturday, so more people probably would vote. They at first had asked it be held on Feb. 14.

How many polling places will be used has not been determined. There must be separate polling places for the incorporated areas and separate polling places for the unincorporated areas. The proposal must be approved in both areas if it is to pass.

We don't know how you feel about it but we would like to know more about this junior college deal -- what it is going to cost, how much tuition it will charge and anything else of interest. If we find out anything we will endeavor to pass it along to you.

L-W Board Will Take Junior Col. Tuition

A tuition bill of $31,425.30 for students attending Joliet Junior College from Lincoln-Way High School District 210 has been received by the Lincoln-Way board of education.

The Lincoln-Way board is not paying this bill, however, unless it is ordered to do so by a court.

The Lincoln-Way board has instructed its attorneys to file an action in the Will County Circuit Court asking for a declaratory judgment which would free the district from any obligation for such tuition bill.

Attorneys for Lincoln-Way and the legal department of the State Superintendent's office, take the position that the new Junior College District Act does not apply to the Joliet Junior College. They contend that as a part of the Joliet High School District the Junior College there comes under the laws pertaining to common school districts.

The legal department of State Supt. Page's office declared that in its opinion no funds could be used from Lincoln-Way's revenues to pay such tuition.

The attorney general has ruled that Lincoln-Way must pay the tuition to Joliet High School but there is a legal question as to whether the attorney general has any right to rule on matters concerning common school law, that such is confined to the province of the legal advisor to the State Superintendent.

It is expected the Lincoln-Way board will begin court action within a matter of days. Besides Sherrill Weichbrodt, Frankfort, of the law firm of Krusemark & Bertani, the L-W board is represented by the Chicago law firm of Engelhardt, Zimmerman, Franke and Lauritzen, rated as authorities on school law.

It is understood that high school districts are joining in an endeavor to have the state junior college district law changed to permit high schools to levy whatever tax would be required to raise the tuition costs for students attending junior college.

The present law limits it to three cents per $100 equalized assessed valuation. The best Lincoln-Way could hope to raise thru such a rate, it was stated would be about $15,000.

The tuition bill presented by the Joliet Junior College is more than double such an amount for half a year. If the year's tuition ran to some $60,000 and Lincoln-

Way required to pay it all then it would have to take the money out of its educational fund and so work hardship on high school teachers and students, it was pointed out. High schools contend it is just as reasonable to expect the grade schools to contribute to the upkeep of high schools from their educational funds as for high schools to use such money to support junior colleges.

Joliet Junior College officials say students from the Lincoln-Way district must pay their tuition bills now, for the coming as well as the past semester, or they will be dropped. The Lincoln-Way board says that if the courts rule that the district must pay this tuition bill then refunds will be granted the students paying them. Meanwhile, students or their parents will pick up the tab. A letter to that effect was mailed all students attending Joliet Junior College from the Lincoln-Way district.

Try Again In Rutledge Dist. On Bond Issue

Defeated last November a $42,000 building bond referendum is to be held again in the Ann Rutledge Grade School District No. 56-C this Saturday, Jan. 14.

The school will serve as the polling place and voting hours will be from 12 noon to 7 p.m.

The school board is asking for approval of the bond issue that it may build a multipurpose room. The board believes such a room would be the most economic way of providing more room to accommodate a rising enrollment, it was said.

8th Graders Test Program At L-W Set For Jan. 21

Eighth grade students from the Lincoln-Way High School area will attend a testing program Saturday, Jan. 21, from 8 to 12:30 p.m. Jonas R. Lashmet, L-W guidance director, is in charge of the program.

School buses will pick up the students at the grade schools in Arbury Hills, Lincoln Estates, Manhattan and Mokena at approximately 7:35 a.m. Parochial school students planning on attending Lincoln-Way should meet at their schools where they will be picked up.

There will not be a repeat date, Mr. Lashmet explained, so it is important that all students who will enroll in September take the tests. An interpretation of the results of these tests will be given to parents in early spring.

The battery of tests will be the Science Research Associates' High School Placement Test. Scores from the HSPT, along with past grade school records, will be employed to help screen, classify and place incoming freshmen. They will also aid in determining special educational strengths and weaknesses and in choosing high school courses realistically.

The battery will include a test of educational ability, reading achievement, arithmetic achievement and language arts achievement.

The educational ability subtest contains problems of word reasoning, arithmetical reasoning, verbal analogies and number reasoning. It is designed to measure the student's general intelligence.

The Reading Achievement subtest measures the student's ability to understand words in context, to grasp the main idea in a passage, aid in making inferences and help in grasping significant details.

The Arithmetic Achievement subtest measures the student's ability to add, subtract, multiply and divide, using whole numbers, fractions, percentages and decimals. The student's skill in solving simple algebraic equations and in using formulas for perimeter, area and volume is also measured.

The Language Arts Achievement subtest measures the student's skills in capitalization, punctuation and grammatical usage.

Since the tests are on a Saturday they will not interfere with regular class schedules in grade or high school.

Orland Couple Has 1st New Year Baby

An Orland Park couple, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wokurka, 9339 Oak St., Orland Park, are parents of the first New Year baby born in the area, and so will collect the prizes offered in the annual contest sponsored by the Graphic Newspapers.

A son, who has been named Jeffrey Steven, was born at Holy Family Hospital, Des Plaines, at 1:50 a.m. Jan. 1, according to hospital records.

The youngster weighed but 3 lbs., 8 oz., and so was unable to accompany its mother home last week-end. Jeffrey Steven must remain hospitalized until he weighs five pounds. Then he will be brought home by his parents. A picture was not available at the hospital but will be taken when the boy gets home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wokurka have been residents of Orland Park for almost three years. The father is a driver for Mid-American truck Lines, of Hodgkins, Ill.

They have four other children, three boys and a girl, Donald Jr., 13; Dennis, 10; Daniel, 7, and Nancy, 5.

"We had hoped the new baby would be a girl," Mrs.

Wokurka said, "but 'she' turned out to be a boy."

The Wokurkas, as the first couple in the area to become parents in 1967, will collect 14 prizes:

A year's subscription to the Orland Herald from the Graphic Newspapers; a 11 x 14 photograph of the baby from the Behnke Studio; a new mother gift package from the Mokena Pharmacy; a $5 gift certificate from Cooper & Hostert Ford Mokena; a baby thermometer from Welsch Lumber Co., Mokena; a case of Gerber's baby food from Economy Super Marts, New Lenox; a $5 gift certificate from Wilbur's Super Market, Mokena; a $5 savings account, Orland State Bank; bottle of Heaven Sent cologne for mother from Lincoln-Way Pharmacy, New Lenox; two cases Heinz or Gerbers strained fruit or vegetable baby food, Mr. Ed's, Orland Park; $3 in dry cleaning, Norman's Cleaners, Orland Park; Beacon baby blanket, Braun Sales, New Lenox; $10 gift certificate, Curling Iron beauty salon, Mokena; a case of assorted baby food, strained, Ordman's Stop and Shop, Mokena.

Flush That Rust

Appearance of rusty water drew some irritated comment by Front St. residents of Mokena last week but Trustee George Bills reported at the regular council meeting Jan. 4 that it will clear up when the rust deposits are flushed out of the system.

Since Jan. 3, there have been 1,829,000 gallons of water pumped from the new well, Bills said. The fluoridation unit was expected to be in service this week.

To repair the present water storage tank or build a new one is a question Mokena trustees are considering. Marvin Weltendorf recommends that the village build a new one. Ralph Yunker, village engineer was instructed to get comparative cost figures. Yunker also is to make an estimate of the cost of a finishing pond for the sewage treatment system. It is expected one will be needed in the near future, it was stated.

Heavy screens are to be placed in the windows at the new pump house. Vandals have been breaking out the glass.

Lincoln-Way S & L Sees Possible Easier Credit

An increase in savings flows and some improvement in the supply of home mortgage credit likely is ahead for 1967, the annual report of the Lincoln-Way Savings and Loan Association suggested today.

The report, issued by Don Nepote, executive vice president, also disclosed that savings balances held by the association amounted to $5,000,000.00 at the end of 1966 as compared to $4,000,000.00 at the close of the preceding year. Mr. Nepote noted that in the face of the stepped-up savings competition, the year-to-year change in savings balances was satisfactory.

The report also revealed that the dividends totaling $186,943.00 were paid to account holders of the Lincoln-Way Savings Association during 1966. During the year the association invested $1,093,835.00 in mortgage loans and the total of the loans at the close of the year amounted to $6,081,509.00.

The report, looking ahead to 1967 said there was no doubt that the "tight money" year of 1966 presented challenges for the savings and loan business and the real estate and housing industry. Mr. Nepote continued:

"As we move into 1967, however, the picture is brighter. In recent months, savings inflows have begun to pick up slightly, interest rates seemed to reach their peak, and there seems to be a slight settling down in the economy."

"Barring escalation of the war in Viet Nam and further increases in non-military spending by the federal government, there is reason to hope for some easing of the "tight money" conditions of the past year. If this assumption is realized, then 1967 should mean an increase in the flow of savings dollars into Lincoln-Way Savings and Loan Association and some improvement in the flow of home mortgage funds."

"The impact of this expected improvement, however, will be gradual. Housing starts, which have been severely curtailed by lack of mortgage lending funds, will probably drop even more during the early part of the year. However, with the expected increase in the flow of savings we expect that mortgage lending during 1967 will show a considerable increase over what we were able to channel into the housing market during the past year."

"All in all, we expect 1967 to be another year of progress and satisfactory development for the Lincoln-Way Savings and Loan Association."

Now that the holiday season is over and everything should be getting back to normal it seems like a good time to elaborate on some of the celebrations. Thanks to each and every one of you and keep up the good work.

Area Growth Adds To Work Of Firemen

Chief Arthur Granat reports the Orland Park Volunteer firemen handled 396 calls in 1966 as compared to 288 calls in 1965, an increase of 37.5 per cent.

Buildings involved in fire had an estimated valuation of $1,077,700 of which $1,042,600 was protected by insurance. Fire loss to these buildings amounted to approximately $42,150. The value of the contents was estimated at approximately $472,000 of which $408,000 was protected by insurance. Fire loss to these contents amounted to approximately $22,405.

Chief Granat pointed out that a $64,550 fire loss in 1966 compared to $1,549,700 in valuation involved was proof of the need of a well trained and equipped fire department.

Of the 396 calls involved, 205 were within the village, the other 191 were rural calls or visits to other fire departments.

In furnishing fire protection to the Orland Park area the volunteers donated 2,938 hours to practicing and 4,121 hours to answering calls, a total of 7,069. No hours are available for time spent in maintaining the fire equipment and keeping the fire station in good order.

The increase in the number of calls is primarily due to the steady growth of the area. To keep pace with this growth the volunteers are constantly attending schools and seminars on fire fighting and other matters pertinent to furnishing the community the best possible fire protection, the Chief said.

The department prides itself in being one of the fastest volunteer units in the state in responding to calls. They also take pride in being the first to put into use the most up to date fire fighting equipment they can afford.

Planning Program Up For Discussion

A public meeting at which citizens will have an opportunity to ask questions and offer suggestions is to be held in the near future at New Lenox where Tech Search is to draft a use and development plan for the community.

Frank Ellis, of the planning firm, talked with the village board at its meeting last week. He is to have a session with the plan commission, which is also the zoning board, and will then set up the public meeting.

The planning firm has views of its own on various facets of community development but it also wants to know what the community wants or has in mind, Ellis explained.

The New Lenox board is to advertise for a new garbage contract. The present one expires Feb. 1 and the company offered to renew it at the same figure, .78 cents a stop, but board members felt that bids should be taken.

Some members of the board will attend the meeting of sewage plant operators to be held at Cherry Hill Golf Club, Flossmoor Rd., Jan. 26. Vincent Bacon, superintendent of the Chicago Sanitary District who has had a hectic administration between his battles with board members, employees, climaxed with an attempt against his life, will be the speaker.

Can Sign Entry Blank For Table Tennis Go

The Lincoln Estates Athletic Club will sponsor a table tennis tournament at the Frankfort grade school gym on Sunday, Jan. 29.

This tournament will be for amateurs, fifteen years of age and over. The entry fee will be $1 and trophies will be awarded to the winners.

The table tennis committee, which is composed of Jim Guether, Bob Keener, Gus Santoro, Don Clark, and Bill Frankenberg, will meet Jan. 19, to discuss rules and make final preparations for the tournament.

The LEAC invites you to practice your game and enter this tournament for an afternoon of fun. Those interested should fill out the entry blank found elsewhere in this paper.

GROWS OWN LEMONADE, lemon pie, or whatever they may want for which lemons are necessary. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunniford, LaPorte Rd., have had this lemon tree for six or seven years. It was six inches tall when they planted it and the top leaves are now about three feet above the floor. When fully grown the tree will be about four feet tall. American Wonder is the name of it and the tree produces a thin skin fruit that is full of juice, a little sweeter than in lemons one buys. Mrs. Hunniford said it has been bearing for three years now but this season has been its best. There are 14 lemons waiting to be picked and the nice thing about it is that one doesn't have to leave the living room to gather in the crop.

Plan Tests For Eighth Graders

All 8th grade students of the Orland Park School, along with 8th graders from Doctor School District 135, will participate in an all day testing session next Wednesday, Jan. 18. The tests, which are administered by the counselling and guidance staff of High School District 230, will be given at the Orland Park School. The battery of tests is designed to measure the students' achievement in the major academic areas and the results are used by the staff of District 230 as a guide in scheduling classes for the incoming freshmen for the 1967-68 school year.

The test battery is given each year, usually in January, to 8th graders in all elementary schools that are in the Sandburg-Stagg attendance area. In addition to the written tests, school officials rely on past performance (as indicated on school records) and on written evaluations and recommendations of the grade school teachers. On the basis of the accumulated data, the school staff can make specific recommendations for each child and guide the student in his choice of electives.

He will coordinate volunteer workers, who will deliver Easter Seals to their neighbors, requesting contributions to help crippled children and adults. The 1967 campaign begins Feb. 20 and continues thru March 26, Easter Sunday.

New Parcel Post Rates Coming Up

Beginning Jan. 15 new parcel post rates and regulations are to go into effect. Area postmasters say the rate increases will average about 10 cents a parcel.

Then beginning July 1 the law provides for a series of size and weight increases on packages mailed between first-class offices. Incidentally New Lenox post office, now second class will be changed to first class.

Use of Zip Code, it was said, will enable the sender or the clerk to quickly determine the proper zone and rate for the package. The zones will be based on the distance a parcel travels between the 552 sectional centers in the county.

A simple chart in the post office show the zones thru the first three numbers of the Zip Code, which represent a sectional center.

The new rates will range from 40 cents for a 3-pound parcel destined for local delivery to 60 cents for the same parcel to zone 3 (150 to 300 miles) to $1.05 to zone 8 (over 1,800 miles).

Launch Talent Search

"Operation Talent Search," a service designed to bring school superintendents and needed potential staff members together has been launched by the South Cook County Educational Development Cooperative (SCCEDC).

Directed by B. E. Wetzel, superintendent of Oak Lawn Community High School District 229, the SCCEDC will serve as the agency through which teachers and other school personnel may make direct contact with districts needing their services. In like manner, the names of potential staff members will be forwarded to superintendents in need of a particular grade level or subject area teacher or personnel to fill other staff positions.

Wetzel, who serves as chairman of the executive board and the personnel committee, stressed that the current talent search project does not constitute a placement service.

"We are not seeking people or jobs," he said. "The service is designed to bring persons in teaching or related fields who may be new to the area or those who are currently completing their training at the mid-year term into contact with the area districts needing their services."

Potential staff of faculty members may contact the SCCEDC in its office located in the Ashland Building, 20200 S. Ashland Ave., Chicago Heights, or by calling 756-6571, for information on the service. If interested, they may file their names, address, phone number, college graduated from, degree and major, subject or grade level position preferred.

Arrest Two After Break-in At Tavern

Two New Lenox youths face burglary charges following their arrest last Thursday morning by New Lenox Patrolman Jerry J. Krasovic and Chief Joseph Wajchert, assisted by sheriff's deputies.

According to Krasovic's report he was passing the Ars tavern on Lincoln Highway when he noticed that the east door was open and broken. He saw two youths in the place and at the same time they saw him and fled thru the back, or north door. The officer pursued them and fired three shots in the air. This seemed to add speed to the feet of the fugitives but Krasovic was close behind when they darted into an all night restaurant, where they encountered deputy sheriffs who had stopped for a cup of coffee.

Arrested were Robert C. Mau, 18, of 919 Ogden Rd., and David Johnson, 17, of 144 S. Cooper, both in New Lenox. According to the report $20.93 was taken at the tavern, of which $14.25 was in quarters. The money was allegedly found on the suspects, including $14.25 in quarters. The pair also is charged with taking a Polaroid camera. The incident occurred about 2:30 in the morning. Entry to the tavern was gained by use of a screwdriver and hatchet, the report states.

The newly convened 75th General Assembly was held on Wednesday, Jan. 4, at Springfield, Ill. Those attending from the Frankfort

Maps Important In Land Planning

Farmers used soil maps to plan crop rotations and land use as early as 1930. Now county and city governments are also becoming major users of soil Conservation Service in Will and South Cook County.

Planning commissions find soils information particularly valuable in making county land use decisions. The map shows where soils are unstable or not solid enough to support a house or highway, where they contain high water tables (likely to cause wet basements), where they are subject to flooding, and where they have poor permeability or are too wet for a good septic system.

The slope of the land (shown on all modern soil maps provides additional information to help planners determine where the best agricultural land occurs and also to help them select scenic areas for parks or residential developments. Soil maps are also used in tax assessment. Many county boards of review and assessment supervisors have found the modern soil map to be the most equitable assessment tool on rural land. Counties using soil maps for tax assessments have saved money because they have fewer landowner appeals to process, and periodic re-evaluations required by law are less expensive.

May also emphasized that soil maps have lost none of their usefulness for agricultural purposes altho non-agricultural uses are inclined to receive more publicity due to their newness. Will County is fortunate in having a modern soil map for the entire county it was pointed out. Interpretations of the maps needed for the uses described can be obtained from the Will-South Cook County Soil and Water Conservation office at 100 Manhattan Road, Joliet. May stated that he would be glad to explain procedures for using the soil maps to anyone interested.

Cook County does not have a modern soil map for the entire county. May explained, however, that the Soil Conservation Service in most cases can provide soil maps rather quickly for small areas needed for intensive planning if the user is willing to share in the cost of the soil survey. Requests for soil mapping for this purpose would be made to the Conservation office in Joliet.

May also pointed out that the soil survey in Illinois is cooperative between the Soil Conservation Service and the Illinois Agricultural Experiment Station at the University of Illinois. Therefore, soil interpretations furnished to local governments are backed up by both the U. S. Department of Agriculture and the University of Illinois.

Knights Blast Rich But Sandburg Loses

Southwest Suburban Conference basketball play last Friday night saw Rich East win dust off Lincoln-Way in decisive fashion, 81 to 64 but the Sandburg Eagles who have been going downhill all season took it on the chin again, this time from Oak Lawn, 57 to 48.

Homewood - Flossmoor, whose only set-back this season has been at the hands of Lincoln-Way, clobbered the Bremen Braves, 93 to 61.

Evergreen Park, under the tutelage of Dick Dystrup, himself a freshman in the coaching ranks, tucked away another victory last weekend by blasting Reavis 72 to 64.

The spread between Lincoln-Way and Rich East was on the narrow side at half time, with the Knights a mere seven points in front, 39 to 32. In the second half, however the Knights began rolling and couldn't be headed, Pat McCabe was highman for Lincoln-Way with 10 buckets from the floor for 20 points and Seitzinger and Ihde each turned in 16 points while Stanfill accounted for 10 more. Eden scored 8 points; Mike McCabe and Warning, 4 each; Kohlbacher, 3 and Fredia, 2, so everybody got into the act.

Lewis was high man for Rich East and the game with six baskets and nine free throws for a total of 21 points. Rich East scored 20 baskets and 24 free throws while Lincoln-Way accounted for 31 buckets from the floor and 19 points from the free throw line.

Jaeger was high for Sandburg with 6 baskets and 4 charity tosses for a 16-point total. Panzek was next with 5 floor shots and a free throw for 11 counters. Pettit and McBride each made 6 points; Wegner, 5, and Snodgrass, 2.

The following ladies are volunteer librarians for the month of January: Jan. 14, Mrs. Stanley Baudry and Mrs. Wm. Bradley Jr.; Jan. 21, Mrs. Harold Cadwallader and Mrs. Francis Doyle; Jan. 28, Mrs. Clyde Bond and Mrs. James Coffman. The PTA Library Committee thanks the ladies for their help.

Troop 40 Boy Scouts have been making plans for the 1967 year of Scouting fun and activities. The first campout will be the Polar Bear camp on January 28-29 at Camp Morris. To earn their Polar Bear patch, the Scouts must camp out for at least 24 hours and cook their meals over an open campfire. This is an annual event for Troop 40. The record for the coldest night spent on a winter campout is 13 degrees below zero.

The Scouts like it rough. They camp each and every month of the year, rain or shine, hail or snow. This February the Troop will take the Lincoln Trail which is a 21 mile hike from New Salem State Park to Springfield, Illinois. In addition to the fun and exciting experience, the Scouts will learn some Illinois history by walking the same path that Abe Lincoln took as a boy.

The major highlight of 1967 will be the week spent at Summer Camp. We have tentative plans of going to Camp Tamerak, Michigan. The Scouts will be able to participate in swimming, canoeing, rowing, and sailing, in addition to camping under the stars. Counselors will be available for merit badge work such as pioneering, conservation, first aid, cooking, and many others.

Any interested boy may come to the Carpenter Street School on any Tuesday evening from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. for the regular meeting or call the Scoutmaster, John Weber at his home. Adults interested in helping on the Scouting committee may also call the Scoutmaster. Mr. Weber's phone number is 479-5091.

The Ladies Aux. of the Wm. Martin VFW Post #725 held their regular meeting on Thursday, Jan. 5 with Helen Karlsen, president presiding.

A new member, Mrs. John Bell was welcomed to the Aux. Several letters of thanks by recipients of Christmas gifts from the Aux. were read by Alma Peterson. A report was made by Arlene Raiser. Thirty-five students from area high schools are going to participate in the Essay contest. The winner will receive a $50 prize and a citation of merit for third prize. A donation of $25 was made to Child Welfare.

A card party will be held, Saturday, Jan. 14, at the VFW Hall in Mokena, starting at 8 p.m. Matilda Stanek is chairman for this affair.

The public is cordially invited to attend. Mrs. Helen Gaszak will be chairman for a card party on Jan. 28. Same place and time. The public is also invited to attend.

An essay scholarship contest is now in progress and is being sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary to Veteran of Foreign War Posts throughout America. The contest is open to all high school students and is entitled "Young America Speaks and Acts."

Miss Arline Raiser is the chairman for the essay contest being sponsored by the local Ladies Auxiliary and states 30 students have applied for applications to enter the contest, representing Lincoln-Way, Sacred Heart and Providence high schools. The deadline for the contest is set for March 15.

The application consists of various questions with three main topics to evaluate: What do you believe to be the qualities of a good American citizen?; What advantages do you hope to gain as an American citizen by furthering your education? and What contribution do you plan to make to society through your education?

Winners will be chosen from each organization and will then vie for the chance to enter District and National level competition.

The VFW Auxiliary of Mokena will present a fifty dollar savings bond to the local winner; a bronze medal to second place winner and third place recipient will receive a citation of merit award.

St. Mary's Altar and Rosary Society will meet on Thursday, Jan. 12 at 8 p.m. in the all purpose room of the school. The program will revolve around Dr. Eleanor Hamilton, who will show colored slides of their family's recent trip to the Orient. A few of the scenes will be from Manila, Japan, the Desert of Australia, and Mt. Fuji.

Snowy Parking Spots Irritating To Motorists

One of the most irritating aspects of winter driving is pulling in and out of snow-clogged parking places. The Chicago Motor Club-AAA offers these suggestions to cope with the frustration:

-- Whenever possible, back out of a parking space in your own tracks. It would be a good idea when entering a parking space to roll the car forward and backward a few times to clear a place for an easy exit.

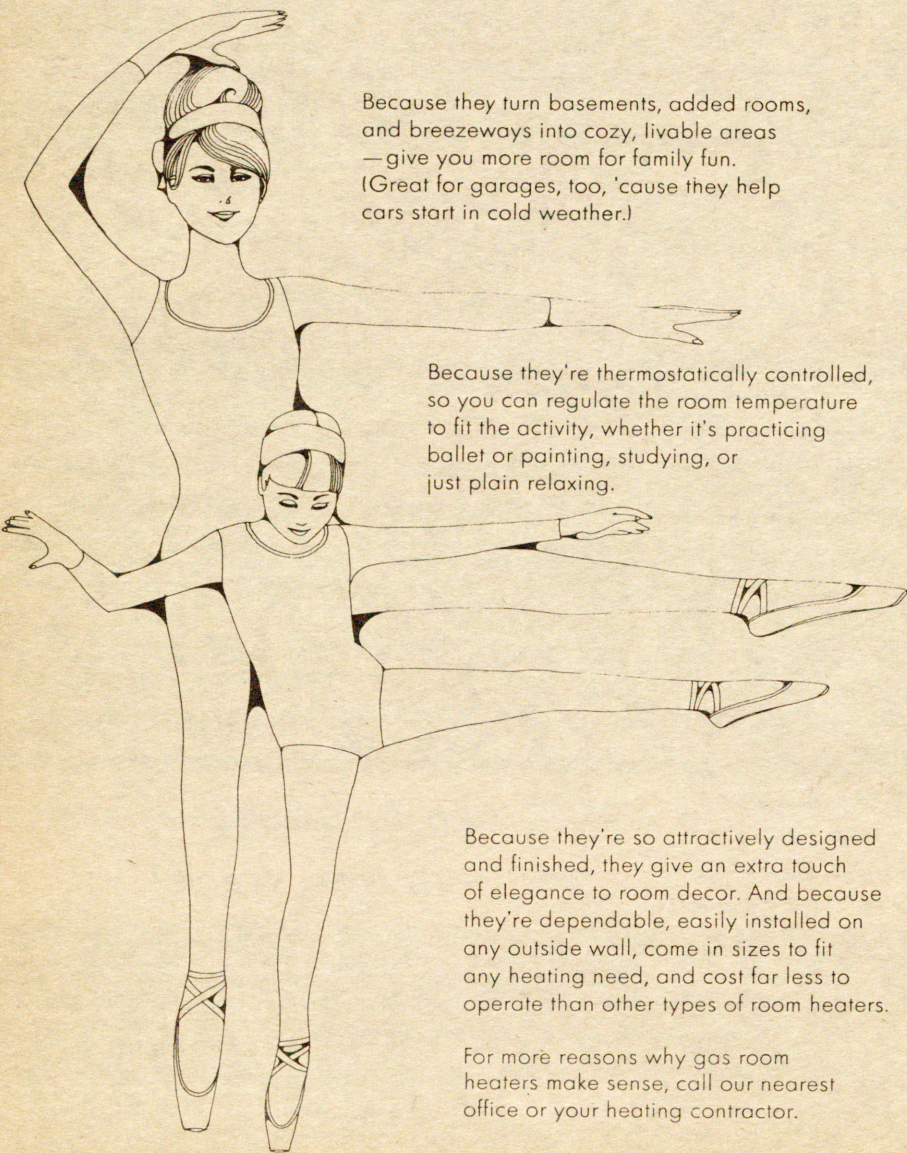

-- Do not turn your wheels sharply either in backing out or pulling forward in heavy snow. This impedes progress.

-- Make sure your transmission is in low gear. Rapid acceleration in a high gear will more than likely result only in spinning wheels and no forward motion.

-- For better traction in snow or on icy pavement, throw a pair of old skid chains beneath your rear wheels before attempting to pull out. If you do not have skid chains, a bucket of cinders or any abrasive that will provide traction will be of value.

-- In the evening, do not park in the same area in which you were stuck in the morning without first thoroughly salting or sanding the space.

Gas room heaters make sense.

SAVE UP TO $500.00
when you trade your car

Rust can't destroy your car when it's fully protected by Ziebart. It's unrustable—and Ziebart guarantees it for 5 years or 50,000 miles on new cars. Ziebart, unlike other rustproofing methods, is 100% rustproofing. Ziebart stops rust destruction where it starts—inside door panels, rocker panels, and all enclosed places where dirt, salt and moisture collect. Ziebart means up to $500.00 in savings at trade-in time because your car is rust-free. Come in today and let Ziebart make your new car one of the UNRUSTABLES.

FREE Come in this week for a 10 minute Ziebart auto rustproofing demonstration and receive a valuable Rand-McNally road atlas—FREE!

Sandburg Wrestlers Win Tourney Honors

Carl Sandburg wrestlers won both trophies at the Rich Rocket Tourney Dec. 28 and 29. In the eight-team winners bracket, it was Sandburg 104, followed by Proviso West 90, in second place.

Winning four matches each in the championship bracket were Eagle grapplers Larry Bernard, Quentin Wolf, and Ray Zadrovetz. The unbeaten record of each wrestler was worth 14 team points each.

Earning 10 points apiece, and second place records of 3-1 for the Eagles were Duane Palmer, Tom Pierson, Norm Bixman, and Greg Shelkun.

Consolation champions, who after losing in the first round, won three straight matches, are Bill Palmer, Dean Mihaloritz, Jim Jelonek, Bill Devine, and Mike Navarro. Adding second place points were Wes Ferrin and Bill Bartolotta.

Graduate to the News.

Graduate now and get a free copy of the famous Guinness Book of World Records—399 pages of factual (and hilarious) conversation-openers like these:

- The longest-known abbreviation in the world: S.O.M.K.H. P.S.K.J.O.S.S.D.P.M.W.D.T.B. (And the Guinness Book tells you what it's short for, too!)
- The longest face-slapping contest on record...when? where? and who? (Were their faces red!)
- The world's most unpronounceable word to an English-speaking person! (Clue: It rhymes with "thraszcz.")
- The longest flea jump! (Not to be confused with the highest flea jump, which Guinness also knows.)

This fascinating compilation of facts, feats and fun has been specially produced for The Chicago Daily News in a handsome, Leathercraft®-bound edition, not available elsewhere. It's yours absolutely free when you start a new 4-month subscription to the Daily News. If you already subscribe to the Daily News, you can order the Guinness Book of World Records for $3.50.
